

‘A Wednesday’ releasing World Wide on 5th September, 2008

UTV Motion Pictures organizes special screening for Chief Minister of New Delhi Sheila Dixit and Union Minister of State Shivraj Patil.

New Delhi 2nd September, 2008: After striking a chord with its awe-inspiring story line with ‘Mumbai Meri Jaan’ UTV Motion Pictures is all set to release its next film, ‘A Wednesday’ on September 5, 2008 worldwide, which deals with how terrorism affects society. Directed by first time director Neeraj Pandey the film gets together the two icons of Indian film industry Naseeruddin Shah & Anupam Kher on the big screen after a gap of more than a decade.

The film presents yet another heart wrenching drama in its own unique way- ‘A Wednesday’, a film that tells the story of certain events that unfold between 2 and 6 pm on a particular Wednesday - events which do not exist in any record but which deeply effects the lives of those involved including the cops, politicians and the public. “It’s very important for us actors to come forward and help a film that’s done with sincerity of purpose and has got a message behind it,” says Mr. Anupam Kher,

After earning appreciations from Chief Minister of Gujarat Narendra Modi and Veteran police officers like Rakesh Maria, Javed Ahmed, A N Roy along with officials from the ATS (Anti Terrorist Squad), in special screening organized by UTV. Special screening would be held for Chief Minister of Delhi Ms. Sheila Dixit and Union Minister of State Mr. Shivraj Patil on special request by Anupam Kher on 3rd September. A special screening would also be held for the Lieutenant-Governor of the National Capital Territory of Delhi - Tajendra Khanna today September 2, 2008. The leader of opposition-L K Advani would also watch the film in the coming days.

Naseeruddin Shah plays the terrorist while Anupam plays a police commissioner, who is all set to stop Naseer's terror activities. The film also stars Aamir Bashir and Deepal Shaw.
