

UTV Spotboy's No One Killed Jessica now also stars Rani Mukherjee

~ Film to hit floors in Mid Feb 2010 ~

19th January, 2010: UTV Spotboy today announced that its much awaited film No One Killed Jessica, will also star Rani Mukherjee along with Vidya Balan. Directed by Rajkumar Gupta of Aamir fame, the film will go on the floors in February. The music for the film will be composed by Amit Trivedi, who burst onto the scene with UTV Spotboy's productions Aamir and Dev D.

No One Killed Jessica, is a fast paced thriller set in the hub of political power, New Delhi. It is the story of two amazing women and their relentless pursuit of justice, that mobilizes an entire nation to prove that in a democracy there is no greater power than the power of the people.

Vikas Bahl, Chief Creative Officer, UTV Motion Pictures said, "Its our pleasure to announce that Rani along with Vidya has also agreed to be a part of a story we really want to tell. When you have actors like Rani and Vidya by your side the joy of creating characters that can shake the audience and leave an impact for time to come is immense. No One killed Jessica is one of our very cherished projects and it has scaled up to the level it deserved to, thanks to Rani and Vidya becoming a part of it"
